

GUITAR LESSONS @ Westwood Library

This FREE 10-week course will offer teens ages 12 to 17 the chance for a hands-on interactive learning experience with the guitar.

Classes will be held Thursdays at 5PM, starting February 7, 2013 and running through April 11, 2013. Each class will be an hour long, and will be taught in a group setting.

Whether you are an absolute beginner, know a few chords, or are a total shredder by now, there's something here for you. Learn how to play the chords and riffs to your favorite songs, and gain the tools to start writing music of your own. Take those first steps towards that dream of rock superstardom!

Requirements:

- No prior experience with guitar or general music is required.
- Students must supply their own instrument—either an acoustic guitar, or an electric guitar with a small amplifier.
- Space is limited. Signups will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. Once the class fills up, anyone who wishes to join may sign up on a waiting list.

To sign up:

If you wish to attend, please email the instructor, Jack Kovacs, at jack.kovacs88@gmail.com by February 1, 2013, with the following information:

- Name
- Age
- Email address
- Daytime and evening telephone numbers
- Previous musical experience
- Your three favorite artists or songs

About the instructor:

JACK KOVACS graduated from USC Thornton School of Music in 2010 with a Bachelor of Music degree in Studio/Jazz Guitar.

Jack has over 10 years' experience teaching guitar, and has taught all levels, from absolute beginners to university level master classes.

He has performed live at venues throughout LA, including the Troubadour, Room 5, and Witzend, and has performed guitar on TV hit shows "Glee" and "The Glee Project." He is currently recording his first album under his own name. His favorite band is The Beatles. For more information and music, visit his website at www.jackkovacs.com.
