Second Saturdays @ Westwood Library

A Free Informal Monthly Concert Series

Our informal monthly music series Second Saturdays @ Westwood Library continues! Concerts take place upstairs in the alcove by the balcony while the library is open for regular business. The concerts will start at a NEW TIME 3:00 PM, and last approximately 90 minutes.

JUNE 10

XAVIER PRADO – Chilean tenor Xavier Prado presents a fascinating program titled Les poètes (The Poets), featuring works related to important poetic figures in art song, as well as famous arias from operas where the tenor is either a fictional or a real poet. Mr. Prado will be accompanied by pianist Catherine Miller. Co-sponsored by THE OPERA BUFFS.

AUGUST 12

PHYLLIS PAN – Pianist Phyllis Pan, in the doctoral piano performance program at the UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music, brings us a fabulous program titled The Elements: Earth, Air, Fire & Water, with works that reference each element, such as Stravinsky's Firebird.

SEPTEMBER 9

JULIA MARIA JOHNSON – Soprano Julia Maria Johnson leads us on a musical journey in her entertaining program titled Cabaret Tunes: Old & New, including premieres by pianist and composer John-Micah Braswell who will accompany Ms. Johnson on piano. Co-sponsored by THE OPERA BUFFS.

NOVEMBER 4 (NEW CONCERT DATE! due to Veterans Day holiday on Nov. 11)

DOUGLAS MASEK – Internationally renowned saxophonist Douglas Masek invites us to a program titled Saxvoir Faire, with a mélange of styles encompassing the sound spectrum of the soprano and alto saxophone. He will be accompanied by pianist James Lent.
